

A B C'S for Members

ATTEND your Chapter and State meetings regularly.

BE a working member; a few hours monthly will qualify you!

CHECKS out the facts before repeating things you have been told.

DO not walk around during meetings; if you have to leave do not pass between chairman and someone who is speaking.

EXPRESS yourself freely and honestly AT meetings; Not after.

FAMILIARIZE yourself with each program.

GIVE proper respect to all officers in their official capacity.

HAVE an adequate knowledge of Parliamentary Procedure and know your Bylaws.

IT is your duty to vote on matters, but do not feel compelled to do so; remember though that by not voting your silence indicates you favor the matter being voted upon.

JOIN in discussions at meetings. Join and be a part of your Organization's activities.

KINDLE that spark of friendliness and enthusiasm within yourself.

LISTEN to and respect the opinions of others.

MEMBERSHIP is everyone's responsibility.

NO speaking across the room to others; always be recognized by the chair.

OBEY the rules of the Organization.

PAY your dues on time! The earlier the better.

QUESTION reports and actions you do not understand.

REFRAIN from talking when business is being transacted or during a report or instructions.

STUDY Chapter, State and National Bylaws and Standing Rules.

TAKE an active part in meetings but do not monopolize.

UNITE your talents and ideas with other members to insure successful ventures.

VOLUNTEER your time, your energy and your best efforts.

WEAR your AAMA and /or CMA pins proudly.

X marks the spot on membership applications where new members sign their names.

YOU the member are the most valuable asset of the Organization and the best advertisement.

ZEALOUS members make our Organization prosper and grow.

